

Church Covenant

Having, as we trust, been brought by divine grace to repent and believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and to give up ourselves to Him, and having been baptized upon our profession of faith, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, relying on His gracious aid, solemnly and joyfully covenant with each other.

We will work and pray for the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

We will walk together in brotherly love, as becomes the members of a Christian church, exercise an affectionate care and watchfulness over each other and faithfully admonish and entreat one another as occasion may require.

We will regularly assemble ourselves together to pray for ourselves and others without ceasing.

We will lead our families toward a closer relationship with God, do our utmost to educate our children with a Christian worldview and, with a pure and loving example, seek the salvation of our family and friends.

We will rejoice at each other's happiness and endeavor with tenderness and sympathy to bear each other's burdens and sorrows.

We will seek, by divine aid, to live carefully in the world, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, remembering that we have been buried with Christ in baptism and raised to walk in the newness of life.

We will work together for the continuance of a faithful evangelical ministry in this church, as we sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines. We will contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel to all nations.

We will endeavor to engage our culture for the betterment of our society by:

- taking a pro-life stand for the unborn, the elderly of our society and those too physically ill or handicapped to defend themselves.
- promoting the biblical model of marriage between one man and one woman
- combating the abuse of drugs and the spread of pornography
- abstaining from the abuse of alcohol

We will, unite with some other church where we can carry out the principles of God's word if we move from this place.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all. Amen.
